

Art and Soul Exhibition
Stuart House, Barras Street, Liskeard

June 26th - July 1st 2017

Entry details

The event is a visual arts competition, and exhibition of paintings, sculpture and photographs. The subject is the artist's choice of a feature in Southeast Cornwall that has some spiritual significance for them. Entries are to have a title or short accompanying description of their meaning to the artist. Statement of the entrant's religious affiliation, if any, is not required but is permissible.

Classes for entry:

- | | | |
|-----|--------------------|------------------------|
| (1) | up to age 16 years | painting and sculpture |
| (2) | 16 years and above | painting and sculpture |
| (3) | up to age 16 years | photography |
| (4) | 16 years and above | photography |

Entry fee, payable on submission of the work, is £5 per person for classes (2) and (4), entry for classes (1) and (3) is free. Three entries per class per person are permitted, a completed entry form (see below) must accompany each entry. There are no size stipulations for entries.

Entries may be offered for sale during the exhibition and commission of 25% per item sold will be charged. The closing date for such entries is Monday 12th June, for cataloguing. Closing date for entries not for sale is Monday 19th June. Entries should be handed in to Stuart House Reception before these dates if possible.

Entries may be collected from Stuart House during the first week in July, or will be returned by Post if accompanied by a suitable package with the appropriate postage stamps attached.

Judging and prize giving will take place on Friday 30th June. The decisions of the Judges will be final.
